

Sri Sairam Engineering College held a 5-day Faculty Development Program on Universal Human Values II, involving over 30 educators from various institutions in expert discussions on core human values, ethics, and social responsibility.