

Sri Sairam Engineering College, in collaboration with NITI Aayog, recently organized Shefest 3.0, a government-funded initiative aimed at empowering women and members of Self-Help Groups (SHGs) with entrepreneurial training and environmental education. The two-day program focused on Femina Fest and Re-Green, Re-Think, promoting sustainable business approaches. These initiatives aim to provide practical skills and knowledge for positive change in communities.